

Message from Vice Provost Kevin G. Shollenberger Regarding a Meeting with Student Protesters, July 21

Good evening.

I am writing to reconfirm our meeting on Wednesday, July 24 at 9:00am at Fast Forward U (320 W. 29th Street). A reminder that this is a university event for a small group of current JHU students, representing the SAPP and Anti-ICE coalitions who were part of the sit-in. Student ID will be checked at the entrance. Student Affairs staff will be on-site to assist with check in. The discussion will be with President Ron Daniels, Provost Sunil Kumar, Dr. Paul Rothman, CEO of Johns Hopkins Medicine, Connor Scott, Acting Vice President for Security, and me. We are checking with other colleagues to learn if their schedules might permit them to join us for the meeting. As previously noted, we look forward to receiving the names of your attendees on Monday, July 22.

We look forward to our discussion on Wednesday.

Sincerely,
Kevin G. Shollenberger
Vice Provost for Student Affairs
