

Message from Vice Provost Kevin G. Shollenberger Regarding a Meeting with Student Protesters, May 20

Good morning.

Thank you for your email. A reminder that this is a university event for students; student ID will be checked at the entrance. Please send us the names of your five to seven student representatives. This meeting will be livestreamed at <https://provost.jhu.edu/reports-and-resources/protest-information-and-resources/>.

We look forward to our discussion on Tuesday. While the meeting is primarily with Provost Kumar and President Daniels, we hope to have a few others in the room to hear directly of your concerns and answer questions or provide follow-up as needed. To that end, Dean Smita Ruzicka and I will be there, and we are awaiting scheduling confirmation from a few senior colleagues with expertise or knowledge regarding security, community affairs, the police legislation and/or the ICE contracts. These may include, Rodney Hill from campus security, Tom Lewis or Michael Preston from community affairs, Steve Ruckman or Rianna Mathews-Brown from the provost's and president's offices, and senior leaders from the schools of Education and/or Medicine.

Sincerely,
Kevin G. Shollenberger
Vice Provost for Student Affairs
