Deadlines:

Internal Application: December 1, 2020

Full Application: February 4, 2021

Opportunity Summary:

The Camille Dreyfus Teacher-Scholar Awards Program supports the research and teaching careers of talented young faculty in the chemical sciences. Based on institutional nomination, the program provides discretionary funding to faculty at an early stage in their careers.

Previous Winners: Justine Roth (2008), David Gracias (2006), John Toscano (2000)

Eligibility & Requirements:

- Nominees must hold a full-time tenure-track academic appointment, and are normally expected to have been appointed no earlier than mid-year 2015.
- Awardees are from PhD granting departments in which scholarly research is a principle activity.
- The Foundation seeks Camille Dreyfus Teacher-Scholars who demonstrate leadership in research and education. Nominations must provide compelling evidence of the advance of important knowledge in the chemical sciences by the nominee. Further, the nomination should describe dedication and contributions to education in the chemical sciences, particularly with respect to undergraduates.

Internal Nomination Process:

Interested applicants should complete their application at the following link:
